

Accelerate your career with a nationally recognised qualification!

Get qualified with MITO

Give your career a head start with MITO's Distribution programme.

This entry level programme is designed for people working in warehouse and distribution roles.

Gain a national qualification

The National Certificate in Distribution (Level 2) is expected to take 9 months to complete.

Designed by industry, for industry.

Programme outline

The unit standards within this programme will ensure that you have the skills and knowledge required to safely handle goods in a distribution facility. There are also electives covering distribution and stock control which can be incorporated into your training programme.

A blended approach to learning

Both written and practical training resources support a range of learning styles, making it enjoyable and easier to learn. You can expect a combination of workplace learning, off-job training and self-motivated study.

Support will be provided by your MITO Industry Training Advisor, workplace supervisor and specialist trainers.

Training fee

An annual training fee applies, please contact MITO for details.

Sign me up!

If you are currently employed in the distribution industry and your employer is able to support your training programme, contact MITO to move your career forward.
