WORK INSPIRATION WHAT IS IT?

Work Inspiration is an employer-led work exploration programme creating inspiring work experiences for 13-18 year old students. Employers open their doors to students – showcasing the roles and opportunities that exist in their workplace and industry.

The case for meaningful work exploration for school students is strong. UK research (2012)* shows young people who experience just four or more interactions with employers while at school are five times less likely to be unemployed.

* Dr. Anthony Mann, Educators & Employers, 2012

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Work Inspiration can be tailored to suit your work environment and industry. You'll have a small group of students spending around three days in your workplace, experiencing the roles and career pathways you have to offer. It will be exciting, hands on, fun and inspiring for everyone.

Careers New Zealand will work with you to help you plan your programme. One of our advisors will spend time with you and some of your team to work out your objectives, what you want to showcase and how to do it most effectively.

Careers New Zealand will fully support you with the first programme and partially support you with additional programmes, reflecting your increased knowledge and experience in running Work Inspiration.

SETTING THE SCENE

Before the programme starts, you will run a 'Setting the Scene' seminar at your business or the school, where you'll talk to students, their parents and school staff about your business and the programme.

PROGRAMME STAGES:

Three Work Inspiration insights

1

ALL ABOUT ME

Kick off by building rapport and trust with students through a personality quiz and conversations that showcase their talents, passion and interests.

2

LOOK BEHIND THE SCENES

This is about making students aware of the wider opportunities available in your industry.

The workbook enables you to match their profile (identified in the 'All about me' session described in stage 1) with roles in your business.

3

CAREERS HAPPEN

Students then interview employees and create a career board – a visual representation of that staff member's journey. This insight illustrates the way careers unfold. It also teaches students the value of being resilient and adaptable in navigating a successful career in the changing world of work.

THE WORK INSPIRATION WORKBOOKS

Filling out a workbook with a buddy helps encourage self-awareness and gives the students an understanding of their strengths. A buddy can also show students how the skills they have learned can enhance their CV.

REAL LIFE TASKS AND TEAMWORK

Try to find real life tasks that get students to think about your business priorities, whether that be good customer service or hands-on activities. Hands-on activities bring your workplace to life for the students.

STUDENTS LEAD PROJECTS AND PRESENTATIONS

Assign the students a project they can really own and be proud of completing. This is then presented at the closing celebration event.

For example:

- Toyota asked students to consider what their dealership could look like in 2020 to meet customer needs.
- A construction company asked students to work as a team to design a sustainable school.

THE CELEBRATION CEREMONY

You will also run a post-programme celebration event that will include students, their parents, whānau, school staff and your staff. This is held at the end of the programme and both employees and students receive certificates and exchange their highlights and learnings over the last few days.
